Words from Fr Brendan Clover

Dear friends,

It was lovely to see so many of you at All Saints and All Souls, and the Solemn Requiem was remarkable. On All Saints Sunday we heard a memorable sermon from Revd Rosey Lunn. Huge thanks to Nailsea Choral Society for singing so well on Tuesday, and many thanks to everyone who took part in the services over this busy weekend.

I am sorry however if some of you may not have heard the names of departed loved ones you were expecting to hear in the course of the Requiem. Just a few minutes before the service it was pointed out to me that there is a list of names which are read every year, but we also had the list you have been adding to over the past two weeks. With no time to reconcile two lists of names and look for duplications I used the list from the back of the Church. So, I am sorry if your loved ones were not remembered by name. Mass was most certainly offered for them.

We have two special Sunday services to look forward to this month: Remembrance Sunday 14th November, and the Feast of Christ the King on 21st November. The Revd Canon Nicola Stanley, Precentor of Bristol Cathedral, will be our preacher on Christ the King, and I know she is looking forward to being with us.

With every good wish,

Fr Brendan

Operation Christmas Child Shoebox reminder

Next Sunday 14 November is the last day for bringing shoeboxes to church. This is so they can be sent off in good time to reach the children they have been packed for by Christmas.

Alternatively you can pack a shoebox online at shoeboxonline.samaritans-purse.org.uk

It would be very good if we had a prayer theme for each day of the week that we could all focus on, to help unite us as a parish.

Your parish priest has been trying to make time to create one but to no avail.

We are therefore looking for a volunteer.

Would you be able to look at the days of a month with the Ordo (which gives you all the liturgical detail, saints days etc.) at your side, and think of a prayer theme for each day other than Sundays when the prayer theme is 'Parish and People'? It's a relatively simple task. It just needs someone with the time to do it.

If this might be you, please have a word with Fr Brendan.

WANTED!

St John's Church urgently needs to put in place a "meet & greet" team to be available for Sunday services and also for other special services. A smile and a friendly greeting go a long way towards making a visitor feel welcome and indeed our regular worshipers too. If you are willing to be part of a team please talk with me or email me on dianemw@blueyonder.co.uk and I will set up a rota.

It would also be good if more folk were willing to read a lesson on Sunday mornings, or indeed a weekday. If you would like to lead the Sunday intercessions Fr. Brendan is willing to run a workshop to enable that. Please contact me or Fr. Brendan if you are willing to help with any of these requests. Thank you, Diane.

Advent Saturday Church Opening-Volunteers Please.

We are planning to open the Church on Saturday 4th, 11th and 18th December 10.30-1pm (Mass is from 10 till half past) to show off our beautiful building with light refreshments. We are looking for volunteers to help for an hour or so to either serve hot drinks, make a cake or welcome visitors.

We also plan to sell our draw tickets, the remains of the items from our church shop and indeed any other Christmassy things. It's an opportunity to raise some much needed funds as well. So, if you feel able to volunteer for an hour, feel like channelling your inner Mary to bake a cake or two, there is a list at the back of the Church to pop your name on. Please speak to Nicola or Kevin. Thank you

Chat and Craft Group is meeting every Thursday afternoon drop-in between 2 and 4pm. Bring your own project along to work on, and chat to fellow crafters. Normally we have the kettle on, but while the electrics in the church hall are being worked on please bring your own drink. I will bring biscuits.

For more information talk to Sue at church or ring on 01275 877710.

AN INVITATION TO JOIN OUR MEDITATION GROUP

A small group of friends decided, about five years ago, to join together for silent meditation. Members came from various churches around the town but, mostly, from St John's. We hoped to grow in spirituality and understanding by following simple meditative techniques practised throughout the Christian World over many centuries. We all believe we have benefited from meditation and we would like to invite you to join our group and share our experience.

Very little is required other than an open mind, and a willingness to devote a small amount of time to inviting God into our hearts. We do listen to short talks and contemplate simple themes but we also learn a lot from each other.

HOW OUR GROUP PRACTICES MEDITATION

We meet at 2.30 pm on alternate Tuesdays, at present in St John's Church due to COVID concerns, but previously in the homes of our members. Meetings last one hour. A note is circulated before each meeting, by email usually. This suggests a theme that we contemplate, and may discuss after meditation. Those that do not have email access are contacted by phone or post. As an example, Celia recently suggested the following theme, taken from Psalm 46:

"Be still then, and know that I am God"

At 2:30 pm we sit down and say a short prayer before entering 20-25 minutes of silent meditation. A prayer is then said for the peace of the world, followed by a recorded 5-10 minute talk on a meditation-related subject which we discuss together and, if we wish, share our reflections on the chosen theme. If we meet in a member's home we usually finish with a cup of tea and a biscuit.

HOW TO MEDITATE

Sit down; be still but relaxed and alert.
Try not to think about anything; spiritual or otherwise.
Open your heart and mind to God's silent presence.
Persevere.
